This home sits right next to trails, making it super easy to hike or bike. Plus, there are fun playgrounds nearby and an upcoming skatepark—what's not to like? Living at the end of a quiet road means less traffic and more peace. One of the best things about this property is the green space. There's plenty of room for the kids to run around, play sports, or just enjoy some outdoor fun, whether it's a game of soccer, a family barbecue, or tossing a frisbee around. Step inside, and you'll be greeted by bright natural light pouring through the large new windows (installed in 2021). The living room features a cozy gas fireplace—perfect for those winter nights. Plus, you'll love the hardwood floors that flow throughout the main and upper levels. If you like to cook or host gatherings, you'll appreciate the wood cabinets, tile countertops, and a full set of stainless steel appliances. The primary bedroom is a dream; it has its own full ensuite bathroom, a massive walk-in closet, and direct access to your own wraparound deck. Perfect for lazy summer nights or watching the northern lights when the sky is clear! Need a bit more space? The fully finished basement is laid out nicely, with newer finishes, a fourth bedroom, rec room and a third full bathroom. It's flexible enough for guests, parents, or even a home office. A couple of extra perks: the hot water tank was replaced in 2020, and there's a brand-new dishwasher as of 2022. And don't worry about the heat—central air will keep you cool during those warm summer days. The outdoor space shines, featuring a heated detached double garage for your truck, plus an extra driveway for two more vehicles—no more worrying about parking! Just imagine enjoying those evenings outside, soaking in the sunset. Sounds magical, right? This home isn't just a place to live; it's a lifestyle waiting for you.
